

Prodigal Father/Son's Lesson

Week of Jan. 27 - Feb. 2, 2020

Introduction

Today's lesson is one of the most loved of Jesus' parables. Often the youngest son is the focus of our attention. However, it is the father who is central and both sons who are lost and need finding. Too often the church has acted like the elder son; standoffish, judgemental, and biased. The Father has good eyesight and can see us whether we are far off or in the dark of our own excuses.

Lesson Luke 15:11-32

11 Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. 12 The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.

13 "Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. 14 After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. 15 So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. 16 He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.

17 "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! 18 I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.’ 20 So he got up and went to his father.

“But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.

21 “The son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

22 “But the father said to his servants, ‘Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let’s have a feast and celebrate. 24 For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’ So they began to celebrate.

25 “Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 27 ‘Your brother has come,’ he replied, ‘and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’

28 “The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. 29 But he answered his father, ‘Look! All these years I’ve been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. 30 But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!’

31 “‘My son,’ the father said, ‘you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. 32 But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.’”

Questions

1. What is this story about? Money? Favor? Forgiveness?
2. Which son in the story do you relate to the most? Why?
3. How do you feel when others get rewards greater than you think they deserve?

5. What does this parable reveal about God's love? How does it make you feel to know that God loves you no matter what you do?
6. Is there an undeserving person to whom you can extend God's love and forgiveness this week? How?

Prayer

Dear God, thank you that every person is precious in your sight. Help me to not be jealous of others or to compare myself to them. When I am lost, help me find my way. God, help me to see clearly the path you would like me to take in my life. Amen.
